

Rio Linda Elverta Chamber of Commerce
Board Meeting Minutes October 10 2012

The meeting was called to order by President Lisa Morris at 5:30 PM in the library of Rio Linda Prep.

All Directors and Officers were present except Don Flesch with an excused absence and the vacant board seat.

June Speakman, recently appointed as Director to fill the position vacated by Trinetta Marquis, from Rio Linda Prep gave a short presentation about the school and some of the activities.

Hal Morris showed the Recreation Guide from the Rio Linda Elverta Park District.

Lisa Morris said placks were presented at Community Watch meeting (CASA) to law enforcement including CHP. She also reminded that Roberta MacGlashan's meeting would take place after the next CASA meeting on Nov 15 at the Community Center. The Food Closet received @$690 from the sale of hot dogs at the Centennial. Pat Lee stated @8-9 cases of water and @800 hot dogs were used. A good time was had by all. Chuck and Sara had over 100 people for Kids ID.

Elections are coming up in November. A committee headed by Chuck Gordon will work on ballots and nominations with the assistance of Directors June Speakman and Linda Waldeck.

Treasurer Chuck Gordon presented numbers from Fireworks sales this year. Discussion took place concerning how much the group actually makes and what could be done, including building and storing our own booth, to make the event more profitable.

June Speakman said that there are 10 clubs at Rio Linda Prep that will benefit from the profit from their fireworks booth.

Ruby's Baskets this year will be chaired by Mitch from the Lions Club.

The Grange extended it's thanks to Pat Lee from Food Source for his assistance and support of the hot dog sales at the Centennial with a Certificate of Appreciation.

Ted Wolters from Supervisor Roberta MacGlashan's office said that all was quiet at the County.

Thanks to the Sacramento Bee for it's coverage of the Rio Linda Centennial.

An upcoming Twin Rivers meeting will discuss the Twin Rivers Police Department. Support for the Police Department is encouraged.

A reminder was issued that the next meeting will take place at the Chamber of Commerce meeting room.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned by President Lisa Morris at 6:47 PM.
